“Of the 26 restaurants participating, 17 are joining the effort for the first time. In addition, several of the restaurants are new in our community and we appreciate their willingness to get involved and support local needs,” said Jennifer Maddox, United Way executive director. She added, “Shaggy’s Diner has taken it one step further and agreed to donate 2% of their sales to United Way!”

The United Way has again partnered with the Plymouth Rotary Club as one of our ‘restaurants’ to promote their Pancake Days,” The Plymouth Rotary Club’s Pancake Days will be held July 15-17 from 7:00 am to 1:00 pm at the tent on W. Garro Street.

Marshall County residents can choose any day of the week to patronize the participating eateries while helping the United Way. Maddox urged “When you do visit a participating restaurant, please let them know you are there because they support United Way.”

ABOUT THE UNITED WAY OF MARSHALL COUNTY

The United Way of Marshall County is creating lasting changes by advancing the common good. The community organization invests in the building blocks for a good life: Education, Income and Health. In 2009 the United Way served over 30,000 individuals in Marshall County!

“We invite you to be part of the change. Together, united, we can inspire hope and create opportunities for a better tomorrow. When we reach out a hand to one, we influence the condition of all. That’s what it means to Live United,” Maddox said.
