Shaggy's Diner (Plymouth)
Sisters' Tea & Eatery (Plymouth)
Wings Etc. (Plymouth)

“This year we doubled the number of participating restaurants from 13 to 26! The restaurants collectively contributed 60% more than last year’s campaign. We’re off to a great start for this year’s efforts.” said Jennifer Maddox, United Way executive director. She added, “Several of the restaurants are new in our community and we appreciated their willingness to get involved and support local needs. Shaggy’s Diner took it one step further and donated 2% of their sales to United Way!”

The United Way extends its sincere thanks and appreciation to all the participating restaurants for their outstanding support.

ABOUT THE UNITED WAY OF MARSHALL COUNTY

The United Way of Marshall County is creating lasting changes by advancing the common good. The community organization invests in the building blocks for a good life: Education, Income and Health. In 2009 the United Way served over 30,000 individuals in Marshall County!

“We invite you to be part of the change. Together, united, we can inspire hope and create opportunities for a better tomorrow. When we reach out a hand to one, we influence the condition of all. That’s what it means to Live United,” Maddox said.
