United Way of Marshall County Announces Money Smart Week[®] Presentations

Money Smart Week[®] is a series of FREE presentations on financial literacy and money management organized by the United Way of Marshall County. More than 40 presentations will be offered during the week of October 16 through 23, 2010 on a wide variety of topics ranging from basic money management and retirement planning to identity theft and Social Security benefits. A complete list of the presentations is available on the United Way website at www.marshallcountyuw.org. The public is encouraged to take advantage of this once a year opportunity and attend as many sessions as possible.

Money Smart Week[®] is funded by four major sponsors: the Indiana Association of United Ways, 1st Source Foundation, United Way of Marshall County, and the Marshall County Community Foundation. In addition, funding is provided by the following local partners:
